

PEGSVILLE POST

MARCH 2020

Welcome to the second issue of the new handwritten version of my newsletter! I'm so happy that you signed up to receive this. Thank you so much! I'm sorry that I couldn't send this via snail mail to you. Being in the U.S. epicenter of the COVID-19 virus, I'm being extra careful about going to non-essential places. Alas, the copy store is part of that. But, the good thing about sending this to you as a PDF rather than a physical letter is that I can make this issue in COLOR and not worry about the cost of making color copies! So, I'm going to have a lot of fun using COLOR throughout this issue and I really hope you enjoy it. I hope you love this newsletter, but if you don't, you can unsubscribe at anytime. Just email me at peg@peg.cheng.com. Cool, now

ON WITH THE SHOW!!

HOW RADICAL IS ALL THIS?

In my last issue, I wrote how I wanted more time every day. I wanted less stress, more joy, and less annoyance. I also talked about how "RADICAL" was going to be my word for 2020. Lastly, I gave a list of the radical more-drastring moves I was making to alter my daily existence and routine. I had NO IDEA that 2020 was going to bring us a

PANDEMIC that would RADICALLY shift how we lived and worked. I mean, my God, who would have ever guessed this would happen?!? (Well, maybe Dr. Fauci of the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases...) I'm pretty shocked about the state of the world right now. My heart goes out to all the people who have lost loved ones and have had to watch helplessly as loved ones suffered with COVID-19. The flu kills tons of people every year. So far 23,000+ have died of it. But the contagious, fast-spreading nature of
